

WEDNESDAY 2.16.22 – ACTS 1:1-8

In the early days of radio, King George of Great Britain was to address the opening session of the Naval Conference in London. The message was to be broadcast around the world. However, just before the king went on the air, a young engineer discovered a broken wire in the radio transmitter. There was no time for repairs, so he took a piece of broken wire in one hand and a piece of broken wire in the other hand. For fifteen minutes, he took 250 volts of electricity through his body so that the king's message could be heard by the radio audience.

The King of Kings has a message for the world, and the way for that message to go through is if believers will be a conduit –a transmitter.

Will you allow King Jesus' message of salvation to be broadcast through you?

THURSDAY 2.17.22 – ISAIAH 43:10-12

Author David Foster Wallace said... "there is actually no such thing as atheism. There is no such thing as not worshipping. Everybody worships. The only choice we get is what to worship. And the compelling reason for maybe choosing some sort of god... is that pretty much anything else you worship will eat you alive." We continue to celebrate money, power, fame, intelligence, possessions, and physical appearance... all things we choose to worship on a regular basis. It's never enough, is it? We are offered the solution to our human desire to worship. Our Father, who says "there is no other Savior but me." The Savior who promises to bless us so long as we focus on Him and not the other strange, foreign "gods" we encounter in our lives.

Today, and every day, we are encouraged to choose to celebrate Him and focus our adoration on His promise.
